Another week and still have some of the best conditions out there, April 1st is 2 days away and you would never know that it is. This past week most of the County received between 4-6 inches of new snow. Most projects are still grooming, but they are starting to slow down just a bit. What I have heard is that they will be out during the weekend and will see what the weather will do next week.

Some of the low lying areas that are in the swamps are starting to break up. ITS 90W in the Woodland area has some hole it is marked with Caution Signs. Trail 81 in New Sweden also has some areas that the water is eating away at the trail, it is marked.

With the warm temps predicted for the weekend more of these areas might pop up so please keep this in mind.

Please remember that with the warmer temps during the day clubs can only groom what they can work with once the temps cool off so there may be some trails that will not be groomed as most projects have a lot of trail to take care of.

There are a few clubs that have called it a season and just because they are done this doesn't mean that the trails are not good.

Meduxneakeag Ramblers, Central Aroostook Snowmobile Club, and Oxbow have all called it a winter. Trails are still very rideable.

The information in this report is only as good as the sources that report it. The purpose of the report is to help snowmobilers make decisions about their trips and to insure their safety. The report will be expanded as sources provide information.....accurate info that is.

Ashland, Portage, Eagle Lake, Grand Isle, Madawaska, Fort Kent, Allagash, Saint Francis, Frenchville, Caswell, Limestone, Easton, Caribou, Presque Isle, Chapman, Walker Siding, Easton, Fort Fairfield, Nordic Lakers, Soldier Pond, Van Buren, Red Arrow, Washburn, and Aroostook River are all still grooming, not as much as during the height of the winter but we are all still out.

ON THE SOCIAL SIDE:

Saint Francis Sno-Angels will be having lunch at the clubhouse, hot chicken and hot Hamburg will be on the menu.

Washburn trail runner's clubhouse is closed for the season

Presque Isle club is having chicken stew on Friday nights from 5-7.
